TO THE GRADUATING CLASS....

Luis G. Lopes
Superintendent

Class of 2007,

As the new Superintendent of the Southeastern Regional School District, I want to congratulate the Class of 2007 for all of your accomplishments.

Just as I am beginning a new chapter in my life at Southeastern, you are beginning your life as productive citizens. Whether you have chosen to enter directly into the workforce, join the armed forces, or pursue higher education, I am confident that the skills you have acquired as a student at Southeastern will create life long career opportunities - perhaps even as a future teacher of vocational education.

Best Wishes.

Luis G. Lopes, Superintendent

Congratulations Class of 2007!

07, you achieved what I hope is the first milestone of your life, a high school diploma. It is my hope that you view your diploma as a foundation on which to build continued successes. The hard work, perseverance and determination which allowed you to succeed at Southeastern will help you succeed in your careers and in life.

I sincerely enjoyed being involved with the class of 2007-I am thankful that you enrolled at Southeastern and I appreciate our association as we worked together to reach the goal of a high school education. It was a joy to watch you enter as children from twelve different Junior High Schools and leave as men and women, students from our school.

Throughout your school years you built relationships with teachers and students that encouraged you and motivated you - invite them to celebrate your achievements. Celebrate the good and the not so good memories of school years we all have grown from these experiences.

This is the only Class of 2007 we will ever enjoy. I salute you and thank you for being a part of my life.

Sincerely,
Jerome F. Burke
Assistant Superintendent / Principal

Everyone of us has one way stairway. Once we begin climbing it we can't turn back. There are people you will meet during this journey, they may become friends or enemies. You will have to look out for them as your on your staircase.

At times the stairs may grow to steep or you may not be able to see the top, but keep going so you will know that you made it. Don't ever give up!! Standing on the center of the steps will keep you safe. Follow the staircase wherever it leads you. I'm so proud of you. God Bless you and guide you through this journey.

Eternal Love,
Mami

Yucha "aka" Aleesha

Joseph

From a boy who knew at the age of two that working in construction is what he would grow to do. With your Tonka trucks and sandbox. You built, tested and proved that hard work and diligence will always serve you true.

With your Father's tools and vocational school you built your foundation and with it you grew. With your future coming into view and your work ethics proven true, your tools and hard work, now will serve you.

May you prosper and believe that we know you can do..... what at the age of two you already knew!

We are proud of you Joseph
Love Mom & Dad

Ryan,

Reach for the stars for the future is yours. Your Gram would be so proud.
